

Saddle up for a memorable day of history, heritage, and delicious food as we step back in time to experience the spirit of Early California and the Old West at Knott's Berry Farm!

Our adventure takes us into historic Ghost Town, where California's colorful past comes to life. Discover the diverse people and cultures that helped shape California and the American West while experiencing what everyday life was like on the frontier. Visit an authentic one-room Schoolhouse, watch the sparks fly as we meet the town Blacksmith, and encounter a Fur Trapper passing through with fascinating tales of life on the frontier. It's an entertaining and engaging journey filled with stories, demonstrations, and plenty of Old West charm.

After exploring Ghost Town, we'll sit down for a delicious lunch at the legendary Mrs. Knott's Chicken Dinner Restaurant, a Southern California tradition for generations!

Before heading home, you will have some free time to explore the Marketplace and stores to purchase goodies to take home.

Come along for a day filled with cowboys, culture, California history—and some mighty good chicken!
