

TROLLS, TOMBS, AND MYSTERIES

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 2026

Step into a day of wonder where art, nature, and ancient history come together! The adventure begins at the beautiful South Coast Botanical Garden, where you'll explore Thomas Dambo's TROLLS: A Field Study—a whimsical outdoor exhibit featuring towering, hand-built troll sculptures crafted from reclaimed wood and hidden throughout the lush gardens. Wander scenic paths as you discover these playful giants nestled among flowers, trees, and peaceful landscapes. Later, you'll travel to the California Science Center to experience Mummies of the World: The Exhibition, one of the largest collections of real mummies and ancient artifacts ever assembled. Discover fascinating stories of ancient civilizations, preservation practices, and cultures from around the world as you come face-to-face with history that spans thousands of years. This unique day blends outdoor exploration with captivating science and history for an unforgettable experience.
