

BOB BAKER'S MARIONETTE "HOORAY LA" with lunch at the Smoke House THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 2024

BOB BAKER'S MARIONETTE SHOW

Step into the enchanting world of "Hooray LA" with the Bob Baker Marionette Theater. A whimsical journey that combines puppetry and storytelling to celebrate the rich tapestry of Los Angeles. From woolly mammoths to today's traffic, this show is a celebration of the culture, history, and traditions. Guests will enjoy the show, get a peek behind the curtains, and have time to ask questions to the puppeteers.

LUNCH AT THE SMOKE HOUSE RESTAURANT

The Smoke House was built at the end of WWII and is one of the few L.A. restaurants of that era to survive to today. Having served celebrities including Bob Hope and Bing Crosby. You'll also recognize the piano in the bar from the movie "LaLa-Land!"
