Under the Big Top in Laguna Hills
SATURDAY, JULY 27, 2024

Enjoy your lunch at home and join us for an afternoon show of KOOZA™ by Cirque du Soleil® is a captivating return to the circus's roots, seamlessly blending acrobatics and clowning. The show celebrates the intricate beauty and vulnerability of human performance, featuring a vibrant mix of slapstick humor. According to writer and director David Shiner, KOOZA explores themes of human connection, duality, and the interplay of good and bad, all with a light-hearted tone. The narrative unfolds with The Innocent encountering a diverse cast, including the Trickster, the King, the Heimloss, the Obnoxious Tourist, and his Bad Dog. Amidst laughter, smiles, and turmoil, KOOZA delves into identity, recognition, and power against a visually stunning backdrop of surprises, thrills, and audacity. The name "KOOZA" is derived from the Sanskrit word "koza," meaning "box" or "treasure," reflecting the show's underlying concept of a "circus in a box." Concessions available onsite.
